KING by Fishamble: The New Play Company

A new play by Pat Kinevane
Dunamais Arts Centre,
Tuesday 21 March, 8pm,
€18/€16***

KING tells the story of Luther, a man from Cork named in honour of his Granny Bee Baw's hero, Dr Martin Luther King Jr. Luther only leaves his apartment for essential journeys, and to perform as an Elvis impersonator. The play explores prejudice, privilege, and resilience, as Luther struggles to live life to the full.

Fishamble and Pat Kinevane have previously collaborated on FORGOTTEN, SILENT, UNDERNEATH and BEFORE, which have won major international awards including Olivier, Fringe First & Adelaide Fringe awards.

Now, Fishamble and Pat Kinevane, under the direction of Jim Culleton and with music by Denis Clohessy, return with this very special fifth solo play.

Fishamble is an Irish theatre company that is passionate about discovering, developing and producing new plays of national importance with a global reach, while championing the role of the playwright.

When society breaks down, when the world as we know it comes to an end, when we can't go on, what do we as humans do?

 Join Carlow Community Writer in Residence Clifton Redmond for a 10-week program of writing workshops aimed at responding to themes of loss, ruin, decay and new beginnings found in this season's exhibitions.

POETRY IN MOTION: DISPLAYING a turn of phrase as sharp as his butcher's knife, Oakley Grove resident Clifton Redmond has shown himself to be a gifted poet even though he has only seriously dedicated himself to the craft for less than a year. "I started about last August," says Clifton. "I've always been interested in music and

BOOK OF THE WEEK

101 Historic Curiosities of County Laois takes the reader on a historic journey from the boyhood deeds of Fionn Mac Cumhaill, knowledge from the Christian monks, wisdom from the warrior kings, visit sites of ancient pilgrimage to tales of conquest, plantation, new settlements, and migrations of Laoisians, who travelled to the far-flung corners of the world.

There is a story for everyone inside with a focus on some of the lesser-known places and personalities which form our shared County history. Stories within, include Laois connections to the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, inspirations for Gulliver's travels, illuminations from 'The Book of Leinster', an enigmatic 19th Century Laois murder, the artist Francis Bacon, World War II heroes and villains, the oldest bog body ever discovered and, even an Irish Pope!
