Subject: Residential Zone Land Tax

Importance: High

Good afternoon,

I am reaching out to you regarding a piece of land situated on Barrack Street, Tullow, Co Carlow called the Rectory Glebe Lands. This is under the ownership of St Columba's Church Parish and held in trust by the Representative Church Body, Church Avenue, Rathmines, Dublin 6.

We operate as a charity, and kindly request that we are classified as exempt from this tax. I was only made aware of this submission this weekend and unsure how to proceed. If you require any further information or maps I will have to refer to our solicitor.

Perhaps you could advise me on how to proceed.

Regards
